Amahl

Questo rivestimento murale riprende in chiave moderna un classico motivo animalier a squame di coccodrillo, evocando luoghi caldi ed esotici. Il disegno, caratteristico del mondo moda e della pelletteria di lusso, diventa il punto di partenza per un ricco parato su fondo lino. Il nome omaggia Amahl e i Visitatori Notturni (1951) del compositore Gian Carlo Menotti, che condivide con questo parato il connubio fra tradizione e innovazione: quest'opera – la prima concepita espressamente per il piccolo schermo – presenta infatti una trama che rielabora il viaggio dei Magi in Terra Santa da un punto di vista innovativo.

This wallcovering reinterprets a classic animalier motif, featuring crocodile print, in a modern way and evoking exotic places.
The pattern, typical of fashion and luxurious leather goods, becomes the starting point for the rich linen background. The name is a tribute to Amahl and the Night Visitors (1951) by the Italian composer Gian Carlo Menotti, which shares with this wallcovering the union of tradition and innovation: in fact, this opera – the first ever conceived for television – presents a plot that changes the usual point of view on the journey of the Magi in the Holy Land.
